

Whoever Brought Me Here

Words and Music Copyright 2001 Robert Edgar

I started drinking early in the day.

Lost my attention, lost my heart, lost my way.

Now faces are blurring in the mirrors and the chrome,

And whoever brought me here will have to take me home.

Put down that bottle, yeah, put down the booze.

Got too many people who get hurt if we lose

It's not just the bearing of sins to atone,

But whoever brought me here will have to take me home.

We love each other

It's plain to see

And I swear oh Darlin'

There's no other for me.

This old life's not easy, I gotta be smart

Choose between truth and meaning, life and art.

Choose between being in pain

And alone,

And since you brought me here

You'll have to take me home.
