

Sends You Love

Redgar 2006

C F
Her cabin's shrouded with a store of clocks
C F
And her tics overtook her tocs
C Dm BbMAJ7 G7
The storms and roiling dreams won't stay outside.
Am Em
Her lovers have all sailed across the sea,
Bm A
The pirates don't get who she's supposed to be
F G Am
She puts a ten on the bar, slides it to the other side.
F G A
Al Hamilton sends his love...

C F
She sways to a life withdrawn and drained
C F
She's been bled white, but can't feel her pain
C Dm BbMAJ7 G7
Lifted her eyes to heaven but found a rusty sky.
Am Em
Well her aspiration's down to fumes
Bm A
Her love is floating in another's ruins
F G Am
Tips her Japanese Sombrero, starts to cry.
F G A
Arthur Lee sends his love.

F BbMAJ7 C
Her falls are heavier than they used to be
Dm G C E7
And the wind cuts its way to her heart
Am G
Her clothes are lighter than they need to be
Am Bm C D
She sips another whiskey in the quiet and the dark.

C F
Now a a slipstream melody floats her keel,
C F
Floating away from her Catherine wheel,
C Dm BbMAJ7 G7
Pumps her ashtray heart with a breath of salty spray.
Am Em
Now she rides the stool beneath her.
Bm A
Swallows fire enough to heat her
F G Am
Sails a napkin from her lap into a wake that disappears.
F G A
Her dreams all send their love.
