

The River Part Two
Robert Edgar 2006

G

We've been talking forever, 'bout what we shared, what we shed.

Our feet don't dangle C D9 Cmaj7 from the edge of the bed. G
One sweet kiss from you Gmaj7 Am7 B7 I'll taste twenty years. Em Am B7

The wrong word from me can still lead to tears.

C B7 Em
The wrong word from me can still lead to tears.

I was walking near the border, away from the sun
Shadows were relaxing, and my work was done.
Flowers were all glowing, deep from within.
I felt a moment of grace, felt the evening begin.

F E E7
Sip your cup of coffee, stare into my eyes,
F E E7
A bird song lives forever, long after the bird flies.
Dm G
For all the rivers that you see, there's more to flow by,
Am C B7 Em
And when a breeze is blowing, what I hear is your sigh.

BREAK

G

I saw a kid just yesterday, what kind of uniform

Was wrapped around his chest, C D9 Cmaj7 such a coercion to conform? G
Gmaj7 Am7 B7 No way his years could comprehend his trade for some gambler's debt. Em Am B7

How does he turn accountable for the tears some torn soul wept?

C B7 Em
How does he turn accountable for the tears some torn soul wept?

G

Oh the songs that I'm playing, they've been playin' forever.

The expressions I've borrowed, C D9 Cmaj7 may leave me a beggar. G
Gmaj7 Am7 B7 There's a bus'at stops nearby, Em Am B7 getting on it's no crime.
C B7 Em
If we don't meet again, play our music some time.
